Nebraska Canvas Board to Certify the Primary Election Results

LINCOLN- Members of the Board of State Canvassers will meet to review the results of the statewide primary election for certification on June 6, 2022. The meeting will be held in the Governor's Hearing Room at the State Capitol, Lincoln Nebraska. Two legislative races qualified for an automatic recount.

A recount for Legislative Districts 18 and 22 where the candidates are separated by less than 1%, will occur on June 8, 2022, with the results of that election to be certified during the next Canvas Board meeting on Monday, June 13, 2022, at 11:00 am in the Governor's Hearing Room at the State Capitol in Lincoln Nebraska.

Secretary of State Bob Evnen will open with a few remarks regarding the primary election.

Participating as members of the Board attending the meeting are Governor Pete Ricketts, Secretary of State Bob Evnen, Attorney General Doug Peterson, State Treasurer John Murante, and Auditors of Public Accounts Charlie Janssen.

An agenda is available at the office of the Secretary of State for public inspection during regular business hours. Individuals requiring special accommodations may contact the Secretary of State's office at (402)471-2555.
